Procedure for Processing a Zoning Ordinance Amendment
Ogden City, Utah

1. Submit the petition for review to the Ogden City Planning Staff at the Customer Service counter, second floor, 2549 Washington Boulevard, Suite 240. Accompany Planning Staff to file the petition with the City Recorder's Office.
2. Pay the $2,746 application fee at the City Cashier's Desk.
3. Petition will be sent to Planning Staff to be placed on the Planning Commission agenda.
4. Petition is placed on Planning Commission agenda as a public hearing, and the petitioner is notified of time and date of the public meeting. At least 10 days' notice of the time and place of the hearing is placed in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality.
5. The Planning Commission reviews the petition in a public hearing and makes a recommendation to the City Council.
6. The Council may override a denial or approval recommendation of the Planning Commission. If the Commission supports a favorable recommendation on the petition, an ordinance is drafted, and a public meeting is scheduled. The City Council reviews the recommendation of the Planning Commission.
7. If the City Council passes an ordinance amendment in the public meeting, the ordinance is signed by appropriate City officials. The ordinance becomes effective immediately upon publication after final passage.

Additional questions regarding this process may be directed to the Ogden City Planning Staff, by calling (801) 629-8930.
